

The Moore Soil and Water Conservation District (SWCD) coordinates a comprehensive educational program. Contact Jeanette Fuller or Penny Morgan for a classroom presentation on any environmental education topic. We also provide environmental education for adults. We have an extensive library of videos and booklets on various topics that can be checked out for use.